

Techart Porsche 911 Spoiler Range for 2012

30/05/2012 20:00 by admin

German aftermarket developer Techart has an obsession for making Porsches better and the company has just turned its latest dream into reality. To be more precise, Techart has released a new range of spoilers for the fresh 991 generation of the 911, with these targeting both the Carrera and the Carrera S models. Technart is allowing owners to choose between three new aerodynamic goodies, with all the designs havi... [...]
