US wheel specialist Fifty 5ive has recently released a new model of rims and is eager to show us all what it's been up to, of course, rubbing its hands in excitement at the thought of seeing them being fitted to an exotic ride. We are talking about the 5ive.Four three-piece concave forged and you can get a really good taste of these rims in the gallery below. The design is a multi-spoke one that somehow mixes a simple with a dou... [...]
