A new section has been added to the "Custom Rides" part of Underground Racing's website, the specialists in twin-turbo Lamborghinis that have given us an endless stream of +1000 horsepower Gallardos. Yes folks, the world has its first UR twin-turbo Aventador. The Bugatti Veyron is not safe, and neither is any tuned Nissan GT-R out there, because a new monster has been born into this world and we will all be p... [...]
