

Roush RS Visual Package Turns V6 Mustang into Mustang GT

07/06/2012 14:41 by admin

Ladies and Gentlemen drivers, we are going to talk about Roush's latest development, but we have to warn you that this is pretty unusual, as we are talking about a set of visual upgrades meant to make the V6 Mustang look like the V8-powered GT model. Dubbed the Roush Six, or RS, the kit includes a front lip spoiler, a hood scoop (this is optional) rear quarter elements, as well as RS side and hood decals. You also get a set of 1... [...]
