AC Schnitzer can now pride with the fact that it's built the fastest MINI in the world, with the project using the RAPTOR name and using the MINI JCW Coupe as a starting point. The AC Schnitzer managed to post a lap time of 1:10.87 on the Hockenheim track during the recent 2012 Tuner Grand Prix held by Sport Auto magazine, beating the previous fastest MINI by 1.11 seconds. The latter also belonged to AC Schnitzer, the Eagle, a p... [...]
