ADV.1 Wheels recently released a huge image gallery, with the company wanting to show us a car that belongs to one of its oldest customer. We are talking about a Ferrari 360, which rides on a set of ADV.5 Track Spec wheels. The yellow 360 was gifted with rims that come in a 20x8.5-inch size for the front axle and in a 20x12-inxh size for the power-delivering rear axle. Let’s see how ADV.1 describes the finish of the rims: &l... [...]
