Ladies and Gentlemen drivers, behold Novitec Rosso's take on the Ferrari FF, with the Italian aftermarket developer choosing not to go too far, neither with the visual, not with the technical side of the customization deal. The 6.3-liter V12 engines receives three stages of power, but the tuner didn't play with the internals, so don't expect to reach the 740 hp level of power this unit offers on the F12 Berli... [...]
