Turn the key and the V10 engine rumbles into life, unleashing all that's dangerous into the world. The sky darkens and storm clouds gather overhead for what could be a battle to the death with the German supercar. This white angle rides into battle with its carbon fiber armor protecting its flanks on a wave of horsepower unbowed by any other German. Its weapon of choice is a fiery set of HRE wheels, complimenting the look of the ... [...]
