The Audi R8 V10 was already an all mighty supercar, ready to take on any track with its rear biased all-wheel drive system. But now, after it's been tuned by German motorsports company Racing One, it's in a completely different league. Starting with a huge power upgrade, this car will impress you - from 525 PS, the 5.2-liter V10 has been boosted to 610 PS using a custom Akrapovic titanium exhaust system and a new ECU m... [...]
