

Audi S5 Rides on HRE Wheels

25/06/2012 15:58 by admin

Americans are still waiting for Audi to introduce the facelifted version of the A4 and A5 to the market, but don't imagine that the country's aftermarket developers are sitting around, doing nothing. Instead, they're doing what they do best - tune, tune, tune. The latest example of this comes from HRE Wheels, which has played with an Audi S5 coupe (the pre-facelift version, of course). [...]
