

Cam Shaft Does its Styling Thing on the BMW M3 Coupe

26/06/2012 21:12 by admin

German styling house Cam Shaft has wrapped up (literally) work on its latest project car based on the current generation of the BMW M3 Coupe. Being a company that specializes on car wraps, the highlight of Cam Shaft's M3 tune is the mat space-gray metallic foiling that costs ?1,785 (US$2,230, including 19 percent VAT/Tax) for the body and an extra ?715 (US$890) to cover other visible areas of the coupe such as the door and cabin surrounds.[...]
