

BMW M5 on ADV.1 Wheels Teased via Rendering

27/06/2012 11:18 by admin

Advance One Wheels is preparing to gift the BMW M5 with a new set of rims and the company has released a rendering of the development. Needless to say that this has pumped up our level of interest and now we're willing to see the real car. If our guess is correct, the M5 will be fitted with a set of ADV5.01SL (SL stands for Super Light). The rendering shows a stock M5 dressed in white, with the rims using a black finish to creat...
