

Audi A7 Gets D2Forged Concave Wheels

27/06/2012 18:20 by admin

The Audi A7 is a vehicle that comes with an extravagant look when it leaves the factory, but the wow factor isn't necessarily given by the details of the car. Thus, it comes with a pretty big tuning potential and we're here to show you how US wheel specialist D2Forged took advantage of this. The company took a black 2012 A7, which uses the supercharged 3.0-liter V6 engine, and fitted with a set of its rolling goodies. ... [...]
