

HRE and Rhys Millen Release Off-Road RX43 Wheels

04/07/2012 11:24 by admin

HRE recently joined forces with Rhys Millen to release the first off-road wheel in its history, the RX43 bead-lock rim. This uses a strong 13-spoke profile and makes use of a new technology, using a self-centering outer ring that holds the bead of the tire in its place, as well as keeping the titanium parts and valve stems from being damaged. The wheel, which is only sold through Rhys Millen Racing, is offered in the following sizes: 17x8... [...]
