

Porsche 911 Gets Gulf Livery and Oxigin Wheels

04/07/2012 14:25 by admin

German wheels specialist Oxigin has come up with a new goodie, using a Porsche 911 as a display for its new Oxrock alloy rims. The company released a few pics of a 997.2 Porsche 911 dressed in a Gulf Livery and wearing a set of Oxrock wheels. The rims that use the same shade of blue (should we say "Baby Blue"?) as the car, mixing this with black to create a strong contrast. Like we said, Oxigin only released a few photo... [...]
