

Forgiato F2.10 Wheels Released [Video]

04/07/2012 16:25 by admin

US aftermarket specialist Forgiato Wheels has made an obsession for releasing designs that ask your brain to process many ideas in a few seconds, the ones in which you notice its rims. The company has recently introduced a new wheel design and has now released a video that showcases its latest goodies. This is the company's newest addition to its 2.0 Series, with the wheels using the F2.10 designation. ... [...]
