

Audi TT on PUR Wheels in Japan

16/07/2012 11:24 by admin

European sportscar are really expensive imports in Japan, and it's not like there's a shortage of good, reliable and reasonably fast domestic products. So why buy the all-wheel drive Audi TT pricing for which start at JPY4.14 million ($52,000) for the base car and JPY6.94 million ($87,190) for the TT-S. Surely, you can get a Nissan GT-R (used)for that sort of money! But the German coupe is not as slow as you might thin... [...]
