

VW Golf Cabriolet Touched by Schmidt Revolution

16/07/2012 14:25 by admin

Volkswagen is preparing to give us a new generation of the Golf, but for now we must focus on the current one and we'll take a trip to the tuning world in order to do this. Don't worry, we won't leave Germany, as we are talking about wheel specialist Schmidt Revolution, which has used the Golf VI Cabrio as a demo vehicle. The car was gifted with a set of Shift rims, which come in a size of 19x8.5-inch and use... [...]
