

VW Passat CC Gets Camouflage Wrap and Tech Tuning from KBR Motorsport

08/08/2012 09:00 by admin

German aftermarket developer KBR Motorsport has recently gotten its hands on the Volkswagen Passat CC and the company wasn't bothered at all that this is the first generation of the CC, so it offered it a nice set of mods. It all starts with a camouflage wrap, which comes from CoverEFX, which, just like KBR Motorsport, is a member of S.W.A.T. (Special Wagons and Tuning). The vehicle now rides on a set of 20-inch R12 Nero lightwei... [...]
