

Forgiato Teases 24K Gold-Plated Wheels

08/08/2012 10:01 by admin

US Wheel developer Forgiato is the kind of company that's ready to go very, very far in order to meet its customers' demands and the aftermarket specialist has recently shown us something that comes to demonstrate this. Forgiato published a photo of a 24K gold-plated wheel that was done for one of its customers and promised that it will offer us the full release soon, which, of course means that we'll get to ...
