The muscle car and vehicle customization cultures go hand in hand, so when we heard about a Dodge Challenger that had had its connection to the road redefined in order to gain an over-the-top look, we really wanted to know the whole story. The project comes from Spade Made - Livin Kustom, a company based on Cincinnati, Ohio, which used a 2010 Challenger as a starting point. The muscle car was gifted with Forgiato Wheels coming in a 26-inc... [...]
