Red is a pretty rare color for the Nissan GT-R, but the owner of the red Godzilla in the adjacent images probably considered that his car had to be further differentiated from other GT-Rs, so he gifted it with a set of custom rims coming from ISS Forged. The wheels uses a copper-like finish for the center, while the lip uses glossy black, also featuring a red stripe that matches the color of the car. The rims use a 20-inch size and are wr... [...]
