We have been waiting for the Fiat 500 Zagato Coupe for far too long, and while this isn't an exact match in terms of styling, the Sportster by German tuner G-Tech is an amazing machine. The first thing you notice, of course, is the chopped roof and the really low stance - great looking result, we must admit. If you take a closer look, then you'll spot the modified front bumper, side skirts and rear bumper with integrat... [...]
