

Owner Says $18K Engine Build Ruined Nissan GT-R With Twine And Zipties

26/08/2013 10:27 by admin

The Nissan GT-R is obscenely fast even when it's stock, but there are ton of people out there willing to pay big bucks to make it even faster. Unfortunately, one New Jersey GT-R owner recently paid $18,100 and says he got a ruined engine full of broken, damaged parts held together by twine and zipties.[...]
