

Mercedes Benz SLR McLaren by FAB Design

20/02/2009 15:02 by admin

At the upcoming Geneva Auto Show, Fab Design are going to show this radical SLR McLaren, one of their most ambitious conversions to date.

Fab Design have been a leading Swiss tuning house since 1997, designing multi-piece light alloy wheels and supercharger systems for the Mercedes-Benz line.

More information should be available on this SLR after the car's release at the 2009 Geneva Motor Show.
