JMS, car tuner from Germany, has unveiled a new appearance upgrade package for the Volkswagen Scirocco.

The JMS Volkswagen Scirocco is fitted with a new H&R coilover kit that improves the handling and also lowers the car by 55 mm at the front and 45 mm at the rear.

The JMS body kit for the Volkswagen Scirocco features front lip spoiler that lowers the front edge by another 3 cm, a rear apron spoiler with diffuser and real carbon inserts.

The JMS Scirocco stands on 19×8.5” wheels wrapped in 235/35 tires. The car is also fitted with quad tips Eisenmann exhaust system.

The JMS upgrade package is already available and is priced at about €3,266 ($4,180).
