There seems to be no shortage these days of new upgrades for the BMW 3-Series Coupe. The latest offering comes from LUMMA Design that has developed a new styling package for the E92 that consists of a rear apron (&euro;535), carbon fiber mirror caps (&euro;395), front spoiler (&euro;849), side skirts with air-ducts (&euro;569), boot lid spoiler (&euro;299 or &euro;653 if you want it in carbon fiber), roof spoiler (&euro;299 or &euro;653 in carbon) and chrome plated exhaust pipes (&euro;353).

For those that want the Full Monty, LUMMA Design also offers a pair of composite front fenders with M3-style air ducts at &euro;850 and multispoke 19-inch alloy wheels priced at &euro;4,900.
