Tuners from Heico Sportiv released a special edition Volvo V70 for those customers who want a customized station wagon. A limited run of 100 cars, all painted metallic sapphire black, is planned for Europe this summer, with prices starting at $85,800.

This V70 T6 AWD R-Design is motivated by the firm's 3.0-liter turbocharged inline-6 upgraded with a recalibrated ECU and a sport exhaust system that cranks out 325hp. The engine is matched to a six-gear automatic gearbox with geartronic function. Thanks to all these modifications the car sprint from 0 to 100km/h in 5.9 seconds. The top speed is electronically limited to 250 km/h.

Heico Sportiv is also offering an Extensive R-Design package that includes: doorsills, bumpers, and a roof spoiler that matches the car's color. The package also comes with an exterior mirror casing in matte chrome optic, chrome applications for the fog-lamp surround, and automatic level control.

The car also gets a new sport suspension, shock absorbers, and springs. 19-inch wheels wrapped in Pirelli tires for the summer or a set of 18-inch Volvo R-Design with Pirelli winter tires.

The R-Design package's interior fittings include sport leather upholstery in anthracite, R-Design aluminum inlays, multifunctional sport steering wheel wrapped in leather, sport pedals and blue-background instruments, aluminum door pins and a special edition plaque for the dashboard.
