

First Details of Underground Racing's Twin Turbocharged Ferrari 458 Italia

05/01/2011 00:56 by admin

While Underground Racing admits that Ferrari has done a great job with the 458 Italia, the North Carolina-based tuner wants to spice up the Italian supercar as "something's missing" from the stock setup. And what may that "something" be, we hear you ask? Why a turbo kit, or even better, how about two? Underground Racing will develop a Stage 1...
